

Auvé BodyMilk Moisturizer

"I created the Bodymilk Moisturizer with luxurious pampering in mind.

It is opulent and also very practical, intended for use liberally all over the body.

My most rugged male cousin is a loyal fan of BodyMilk Moisturizer as his hand cream. This is hilarious to me; he always pretends to be so macho that I never pictured him using any skincare products. "

Auvé BodyMilk Moisturizer provides intense hydration to dry areas of the body. Distinctively-textured, this moisturizer is smooth and silky, reminiscent of buttermilk, with no greasy residue.

The clean, natural scent of almonds is relaxing and refreshing in this moisturizer. Vitamin E helps to infuse moisture deeply within the skin for continuous hydration and nourishment, keeping skin soft, smooth and conditioned.
