

Auvé DayTime Moisturizer

"I like to keep things light during the day."

I developed Auvé DayTime Moisturizer to protect and nourish skin, acting as a sheer veil that remains non-greasy. It absorbs the excess oils that build up during the day, and it lightly shields our pores from incoming dirt."

Angella Sprauve
Founder, Auvé

Auvé Daytime Moisturizer is light-bodied, specially-designed to hydrate, protect and nourish skin throughout the entire day with a smooth, supple, matte finish. It is an aid in the application of makeup, serving well as the base for a bright, glowing finish.

Perfect for dry, oily or combination skin types, DayTime Moisturizer is a daytime moisturizer that works best when complemented by an evening skincare regimen utilizing Auvé Night Revitalizer.

For dry skin, the moisturizer works best when applied after using Auvé VitaComplex Serum.
